“When developing TrophyCocktail, we consciously made the decision to focus on only highlighting excellence in the industry. More importantly, the app stands as it's own social network while still allowing enthusiasts to stay connected on the social platforms they already use. The Social Sharing features are quick and powerful. We made a very easy way for users to reach a broad audience with one post.”

Bill Stephens
Founder, CEO

“We’ve built a platform for top bartenders and super enthusiasts that aggregates their cocktail photos by city, spirit category and key word. This data drives the Trending section of the app and becomes a ranking of the best bars and bartenders.”

Summer-Jane Bell
Co-Founder, VP of Marketing

“Useful for travelers... Great when you're in an unknown city looking for a place with good cocktails since you can fire it up and search the area for trusted bartenders serving drinks in line with your palate. Also useful in your hometown for finding new cocktails”

Rod Unks
